

Mediator Accreditation Programme

I recently completed the Hunt ADR 5 day accredited mediation course. It was intense but brilliant. Gregg, Kelly and John are amazing teachers and their experience added real value. The resources were extremely helpful in preparing for the final assessment.

Guevara Leacock — Lecturer of Private Law, University of Kent

Hunt ADR's Mediator Accreditation Programme is a Civil Mediation Council accredited five-day course designed to train and assess civil & commercial mediators to the highest professional standards.

Key Details:

Duration: 5 days, online / in person

Accreditation: Civil Mediation Council Accredited

CPD: 40 hours

Format: Skills training, coaching, role-play,
assessment

Who is it for?

This programme is suitable for anyone wishing to qualify as a Civil & Commercial mediator. It is open to lawyers and non-lawyers alike. No prior mediation experience is required.

What will you learn?

- The five stages of the mediation process, from Preparation to Closing the mediation
- Core mediator skills: rapport building, active listening, questioning, reality testing, negotiation
- Ethical practice and managing confidentiality
- Handling difficult parties and complex dynamics
- Drafting mediation agreements and settlement terms

Assessment

Participants are assessed throughout the programme via observed role-plays, feedback, and final assessment exercises. Successful candidates meet the Civil Mediation Council's standards for mediator accreditation.

Upcoming dates:

10-14 November 2025 - book now

8-12 December 2025 - book now

Contact us:

For more information, email adr@huntadr.com